ENCHANTING JAPAN: AN AUTUMN ODYSSEY

13 DAY SOLOS TOUR
OCTOBER 2025

www.twosacrowd.com.au

Experience the magic of Japan during an especially stunning time of year—autumn. This 13-day adventure immerses you in Japan’s perfect harmony of ancient tradition and modern innovation. Begin your journey amid Tokyo’s soaring skyscrapers, then venture to Hakone’s mountainous hot springs, where you’ll discover true relaxation in fragrant steam clouds. In Takayama, delight in the preserved beauty of the Edo era, before moving on to explore the cultural diversity of Kyoto.

Witness the profound peace of Hiroshima, master the art of sushi-making with an expert, and soak away your worries in a traditional onsen. Throughout your travels, a local leader will reveal the rich tapestry of Japanese culture as you visit temples, castles, shrines, and holy mountains. There is no better time to see Japan’s iconic cherry blossoms in full bloom, making this journey truly unforgettable.

While this is the prime time of the year to see autumn leaves, we are of course dependent on mother nature so we cannot guarantee you’ll see autumn leaves.

Will you join us?

DAY 1 Wednesday 1st Oct TOKYO ARRIVAL DAY (D)

Konnichiwa! Welcome to Japan. Your adventure begins in the country's lively capital, Tokyo. Upon arrival, there will be a group transfer to the city. Otherwise, if you get to the city early, there are many sides of Tokyo to explore, from fascinating museums and world-class shopping, to neighbourhood backstreets lined with hole in the wall eateries and bars. Tonight we'll enjoy a welcome dinner at a local restaurant and meet your Two's a Crowd Host and fellow travellers. Tokyo's food scene is undoubtedly one of the world's best, and the city truly celebrates the art of eating well. Sample a range of regional and seasonal delights including handmade soba noodles, crispy tempura and yakitori.

DAY 2 Thursday 2nd Oct TOKYO (B)

Bursting with contemporary urban culture and historic temples and shrines, Tokyo has so much to uncover. Exploring the world's largest city alone can be a daunting task, but today your leader will introduce you to the old and new Tokyo on a half-day tour. Begin in the Asakusa area, one of the older and more traditional parts of Tokyo, often called the temple district. Here you'll stop by Senso-ji, the city's oldest temple—founded almost 1400 years ago when Tokyo was nothing more than a fishing village. Browse the many interesting stalls filled with tasty treats, crafts and souvenirs that line the shopping street of Nakamise dori. Then jump on the metro to explore the buzzing Shibuya area. Afterwards, enjoy some peaceful bliss at Yoyogi Park and Meiji Shrine before diving into Harajuku district, the home of quirky youth pop culture. Then get a birds-eye view of Tokyo from Roppongi Mori Tower.

DAY 3 Friday 3rd Oct TOKYO (B/L)

This morning, get ready for a delicious experience at the famous Tsukiji Outer Market, where fresh seafood from Tokyo's largest wholesale fish market (recently relocated to a new site at Toyosu) is delivered and ready to sample daily. Your leader will provide insight into the underwater treasures that go into the local cuisine, then you will attend a wonderful sushi making class from a 4th generation sushi family to learn about the art and history of this Japanese cuisine that's so loved across the world. Learn how to make nigiri sushi and hand-rolled sushi, then enjoy your fresh creations for lunch. After learning some valuable skills to take home with you, you can join your leader for a short walking tour in the Ginza area and then head to the Tokyo National Museum. Afterwards, enjoy some free time in the city. Perhaps check out the Yayoi Kusama Museum for its amazing exhibits by the avant-garde artist (advance reservation required), browse high-end shops in Ginza, experience the theatre of a kabuki play, or create your own entertainment with some karaoke.

DAY 4 Saturday 4th Oct TOKYO – HAKONE (B/D)

Say sayonara to Tokyo this morning and board a train bound for the mountainous onsen (hot spring) town of Hakone. Away from the hustle and bustle of Tokyo, Hakone offers tranquillity among stunning natural scenery. On arrival, take a cable car up the mountains to the sulphur vents of Owakudani, followed by a boat trip across the serene Ashinoko Lake. Enjoy spectacular views, and on a clear day, you will catch a glimpse of Mt Fuji in the distance. Check in to the hotel for the evening. Here you'll experience the design and ambience of a traditional Japanese ryokan without sacrificing modern comforts. Each room comes with a private onsen, and there are also larger public indoor and outdoor onsens that overlook the surrounding greenery to make use of. Tonight, you'll enjoy dinner at the on-site restaurants which serves up a feast of classic Japanese dishes, then after getting your fill, spend a blissful evening relaxing in your onsen.

Note: People with tattoos may not be allowed to enter the public bath. In that case, ask the tourism office for some places that may have a private bath. — We will send your suitcases on to Takayama today, since you will travel frequently by trains and public transportation during the next days. Please prepare a light overnight backpack for Hakone. Your guide will help you this morning. One suitcase per person is included; if you wish to send additional luggage, the cost is around JPY1800-2500 per bag, paid locally.

DAY 5 Sunday 5th Oct HAKONE – TAKAYAMA (B)

Today, travel to Takayama via shinkansen (bullet train), with a few changes along the way. Takayama is a charming Edo-period town located in the Japanese alps. Renowned for its traditional inns, sake breweries and tranquil atmosphere, this riverside jewel of central Honshu may well be one of the most enjoyable stops on your trip. On arrival, head out on a walking tour with your leader who will point out examples of beautiful traditional architecture as you explore the old part of town. Learn how the town's isolated location caused it to develop a unique culinary scene. The area is particularly famous for Hida beef, which comes from a black-haired Japanese cattle breed that has been raised in Gifu Prefecture for at least 14 months. Stop off on your tour to sample delicious Hida beef sushi or skewers. Enjoy a free evening and your leader will be able to point out some great restaurants to try more signature local food.

Note: We will send your suitcases on to Hiroshima today, since you will travel frequently by trains and public transportation during the next days. Please prepare a light overnight backpack for Takayama. Your guide will help you this morning. One suitcase per person is included; if you wish to send additional luggage, the cost is around JPY1800–2500 per bag, paid locally.

 Your own room at Takayama Ouan or similar

DAY 6 Monday 6th Oct TAKAYAMA (B)

Start the day with a visit to the Takayama morning market. The Gifu region is known for its production of high-altitude vegetables, and local women have been travelling in from the countryside to sell their produce for more than 600 years. Your leader will guide you through the market stalls selling colourful pickles, bags of miso wrapped in leaves, genkotsu ame (soy bean candy), preserved fish, spices, and the delicious marshmallow treat of owara tamaten. After some time to peruse the local treats, hop on a public bus and head to the village of Shirakawa-go, home to charming thatched-roof cottages built in the gassho-zukuri style. Learn about ancient countryside life with your leader and explore the fairy-tale village against the magnificent backdrop of the Japanese Alps. Enjoy some free time in Takayama after you return in the afternoon. Perhaps check out Takayama Festival Floats Exhibition Hall (admission 1000 yen) which has an excellent array of festival floats on display.

DAY 7 Tuesday 7th Oct TAKAYAMA – HIROSHIMA (B/D)

Today you will travel by train to Hiroshima, a friendly and cosmopolitan city with a tragic past. Today Hiroshima is thriving—the city is full of distinctive cuisine, tight-knit communities and a focus on promoting world peace. On arrival, head out with your leader for an orientation walk to familiarise yourself with the city. After working up an appetite, head to a local restaurant for dinner and try some of Hiroshima's signature dishes. The city is renowned for its fantastic oysters and okonomiyaki—a delicious savoury pancake made with egg, cabbage, soba noodles and meat or seafood.

Note: We will send your suitcases on to Kyoto today, since you will travel frequently by train on the next day. To be safe, please prepare a light backpack with the most necessary belongings. Your guide will help you this morning. One suitcase per person is included; if you wish to send additional luggage, the cost is around JPY1800–2500 per bag paid locally.

 Your own room at ANA Crowne Plaza Hiroshima or similar

DAY 8 Wednesday 8th Oct HIROSHIMA (B)

This morning you'll visit the Genbaku (A-Bomb) Dome and the Peace Memorial Park and Museum. Your leader will share the devastating story of the fateful day in August 1945 when Hiroshima was attacked by atomic warfare. The dome was just metres from the atomic site and was able to retain its shape—serving as a reminder of the attack and now-symbol of peace. The memorial park serves a similar purpose, and has museums, memorials and monuments dedicated to the memory of victims, education on what led to the bomb's use, as well as advocating world peace. After your visit, take a short ferry ride to the island of Miyajima. The island is home to the Shinto shrine of Itsukushima, known for its huge bright orange gate (torii) that rises majestically out of the sea. Miyajima is an ideal place for walking. There is the lovely Momiji Park from where it is possible to walk or take a cable car up to the top of Mt Misen. Return to Hiroshima for an evening at leisure.

DAY 9 Thursday 9th Oct HIROSHIMA – KYOTO (B)

As you speed north to Kyoto on shinkansen, you'll stop en route at Japan's most impressive samurai castle at Himeji. The building, which has survived earthquakes and war since the mid-16th century, was restored to its full glory in 2015. Explore the castle that was once home to over 10,000 samurai families, learn about their lives and look out over the castle grounds and the city below. Arrive at Kyoto mid-afternoon. Originally founded as Heian-kyo (literally 'tranquillity and peace capital') by Emperor Kammu in 794, Kyoto had its golden age during the imperial court's heyday from 794 to 1185. Join your leader and walk around Gion, Kyoto's most famous geisha district, and learn about the history of geisha culture as you explore old wooden teahouses and exclusive restaurants. It's a great idea to return here in the evening when it really springs to life. You might spot geikos (geishas) or maikos (apprentice geishas) with their elaborate dress and make up on their way out to events.

DAY 10 Friday 10th Oct HIROSHIMA – KYOTO (B)

Begin your day with a city tour around some of Kyoto's main sights. Visit the extravagantly decorated Kinkakuji Temple, immortalised in Yukio Mishima's novel 'The Golden Pavilion'. Then, head to Kyoto's famed Fushimi Inari Shrine—known throughout the world as the 'Path of the Red Gates.' Take time to appreciate the quieter corners of the shrine, and if you're feeling fit, a walk to the halfway point provides stunning city views. Then, visit Nijo Castle, one of the best surviving examples of castle palace architecture from Japan's feudal era, exploring the ornate buildings, famous "nightingale floors", and beautiful gardens. Continue with a short train ride and walk to a renowned sake brewery. Your visit to the brewery covers every aspect of sake creation—with full-scale historical artefacts in abundance, and a chance to taste different types of sake at the end of your visit.

DAY 11 Saturday 11th Oct NARA DAY TRIP (B)

Get back on the train to Nara. On arrival, take a bus to Nara Park, home to over 1,200 free-roaming deer that have become a symbol of the city—you can purchase special crackers to feed these friendly creatures who have been known to bow in return for treats. Next, visit Todaiji Temple, one of Nara's UNESCO World Heritage sites, which houses the world's largest bronze Buddha statue (Daibutsu) within the immense Daibutsuden Hall, the largest wooden building in the world. After Todaiji, head to Kofukuji Temple, Nara's second-most important temple after Todaiji, known for its beautiful five-story pagoda, the second tallest wooden pagoda in Japan. The temple grounds also feature the Tokondo Hall with its impressive wooden statues and the Hokuendo Hall with its serene rock garden. In the evening, take the train back to Kyoto.

Note: We will send your suitcases on to Tokyo today, since you will travel frequently by train and public transport on the next day. To be safe, please prepare a light backpack with the most necessary belongings. Your guide will help you this morning. One suitcase per person is included; if you wish to send additional luggage, the cost is around JPY1800–2500 per bag, paid locally.

TRANSPORT ON TOUR

Travelling into major cities by coach can be problematic due to heavy traffic and local restrictions on where coaches can actually travel. Because of this we have chosen to use the Japanese train system frequently during the tour. Japan's highly efficient train system is renowned for its punctuality, comfort, and speed, ensuring seamless travel across the country. The Shinkansen (bullet train) can reach speeds of up to 320 km/h, making long-distance travel quick and easy. On days where a train is being used, your luggage will be transported separately so you don't need to worry about that yourself. You will need to be comfortable with walking to and from train stations to either hotels or local attractions on the days we are using trains. If you have any mobility issues, please speak with the team who will help you decide if this tour is right for you.

These Booking Conditions set out the terms on which you contract with Travel Passion Pty Ltd trading as Two's a Crowd (TaC) for the arrangement and delivery of travel arrangements for your trip. By placing a booking with us, you acknowledge that you have read, understood and agree to be bound by these Booking Conditions.

These Booking Conditions only apply to travel arrangements which you book with us and which we agree to make, provide or perform (as applicable) as part of our contract with you as the principal operator of the travel arrangements. We reserve the right to change these Booking Conditions at any time prior to you making a booking request.

Where we act as agent for the principal operators of the travel arrangements, your contract will be with the principal operator and will be subject to the principal operator's booking conditions. To the extent we have a legal relationship with you where we are acting as agent for the principal operator of travel arrangements our Agency Booking Conditions (ancillary services) which are published on our website will apply and these Group Booking Conditions will have no effect. "You" and "Your" means all persons named in a booking (including anyone who is added or substituted at a later date). "We", "us", "our" and Two's a Crowd means Travel Passion Pty Ltd.

MAKING A BOOKING

A booking request is accepted when you pay a deposit and we issue a written (generally via email) booking confirmation. No employee of TaC other than a director has the authority to vary or omit any of these Booking Conditions or to promise any discount, refund or credit.

SERVICES

The services we provide to you are limited to (a) the arrangement and coordination of your travel arrangements; and (b) the delivery of travel arrangements which we directly control. This includes (often significant) work undertaken prior to travel to arrange and coordinate the delivery of your travel arrangements

PRICING

Prices shown in our brochures are in Australian Dollars (AUD) and were accurate based on prices and exchange rates at the time of printing or publication. We reserve the right to adjust published prices due to currency fluctuations, government charges or increased costs of services at any time. Please enquire with us or check our website prior to making a booking request for the current prices.

Please be aware that tour pricing may be based on a number of foreign currencies and the total cost of your trip can only be guaranteed upon final payment. Up until that time TaC reserves the right to amend your tour pricing in accordance with negative currency fluctuations and the imposition of new or amended government charges.

NOT INCLUDED IN THE TOUR PRICE

Unless otherwise stated, international and domestic airfares, visas, airport taxes, port taxes, city taxes, security charges, airport/hotel transfers, gratuities, items of a personal nature, travel insurance, vaccinations, emergency evacuation costs, laundry, meals (other than those stipulated), additional beverages and consumables are not included in the tour price.

PRICE SURCHARGES

We reserve the right to surcharge the cost of your booked travel arrangements prior to commencement for circumstances beyond our control such as currency devaluation, fuel or air fare surcharges, or the imposition of new or amended Government charges. We will not surcharge for currency fluctuations once full payment has been received by us.

DEPOSIT

A non-refundable and non-transferable deposit of 20% of the booking value or $1500 per person (whichever is the greater) is required within seven days (unless otherwise stated). We will then issue your booking confirmation. The deposit represents a fee payable to us for services associated with the processing and confirmation of your booking and any consultations on travel arrangements that we may provide to you. Because these services are provided as soon as we confirm your booking, the deposit is non-refundable other than where we cancel your travel arrangements for reasons other than Force Majeure (see below). We are not obliged to hold or confirm any services for you until we receive your deposit. If you fail to pay the deposit on time, then we reserve the right to cancel your booking without notice. If the price of any services increases before we receive your deposit, we reserve the right to pass on this price increase to you. This is in addition to our right to increase prices prior to full payment as stated above.

FINAL PAYMENT

The balance is due up to 120 days before commencement of your trip, however, payment schedules can vary depending on our supplier requirements. Certain tours also may require payment (including full payment) earlier or additional instalment payments to be made. Payment schedules will be provided to you at the time of booking. Late payment may cause cancellation of all or part of your trip, with no refund payable. We are under no obligation to remind you of the balance becoming due. For late bookings (bookings within 120 days of departure), full payment is required at the time of request. You acknowledge that we may not be able to confirm services, in which case we will provide you with a refund.

Payments can be made by direct deposit or credit card. Unfortunately, we are unable to accept cheques or cash.

ILLNESS OR VACCINATION STATUS PREVENTING TRAVEL

If due to any illness, suspected illness or failure to satisfy any required tests (such as a PCR or rapid antigen test in relation to Covid-19) or vaccination requirements:

– an airline or other common carrier refuses you carriage;

– a hotel or vessel refuses to accommodate you; or

– we or our suppliers (acting reasonably) exclude you from the trip and you are consequently prevented from commencing or continuing your trip, then:

– if you have already commenced your trip, we will provide you with reasonable assistance to arrange alternative travel arrangements or to continue the trip. This will be at your cost.

– if you have not commenced your trip then we regret we will not be in a position to provide such assistance.

We will not be liable to refund the cost of your trip (or any part of it) because we would have already paid (or committed to pay) suppliers and we would have already performed significant work preparing for the delivery of your trip and servicing your booking. We will not be responsible for any other loss or loss you incur in connection with your booking (for example, airfares and visa expenses) if you are prevented from commencing or continuing your trip in these circumstances.

CANCELLATIONS OR RESCHEDULING BY US

In these Booking Conditions, the term Force Majeure means an event or events beyond our control and which we could not have reasonably prevented, and includes but is not limited to: (a) natural disasters (including not limited to flooding, fire, earthquake, landslide, volcanic eruption), adverse weather conditions (including hurricane or cyclone), high or low water levels; (b) war, armed conflict, industrial dispute, civil strife, terrorist activity or the threat of such acts; epidemic, pandemic; (d) any new or change in law, order, decree, rule or regulation of any government authority (including travel advisories and restrictions).

Force Majeure – Prior to travel

If in our reasonable opinion, we your travel arrangements cannot safely or lawfully proceed due to a Force Majeure Event, then we at our discretion may elect to:

• reschedule your travel arrangements (in whole or in part) and/or

• cancel your travel arrangements (in whole or in part), in which case our contract with you will terminate (in whole or in part)

If we cancel your travel arrangements and our contract terminates, neither of us will have any claim for damages against the other for the cancelled arrangements. However, we will refund payments attributable to the cancelled travel arrangements less (a) unrecoverable third party costs and other expenses incurred by us for the cancelled travel arrangements; (b) overhead charges incurred by us relative to the price of the cancelled travel arrangements; and (c) fair compensation for work undertaken by us in relation to the cancelled travel arrangements until the time of cancellation and in connection with the processing of any refund.

Force Majeure – During travel

If we cancel your travel arrangements after your trip has commenced due to Force Majeure, we will provide you with a refund of recoverable third-party costs only.

FORCE MAJEURE – GENERAL

If we provide you with any alternative services or assistance where travel arrangements are cancelled or rescheduled due to Force Majeure, then you agree the amount to be refunded to you will be reduced by the value of these services and assistance.

If we cancel your trip for reasons beyond Force Majeure, you will be offered (at your election) a full refund of all funds paid over to us, or the offer of a trip of substantially equal quality if appropriate. TaC disclaims any liability to you for the costs of airfares, visas or any other expenses incurred by you as a result of postponement or cancellation of your travel arrangements by us whether due to Force Majeure or otherwise. You acknowledge that the terms in this section are reasonably necessary to protect our legitimate business interests.

MINIMUM NUMBERS

Some tours are based on a minimum number of passengers travelling. We will advise you prior to confirming your booking if this is the case. If a tour fails to attract the minimum passenger numbers, the tour may be cancelled, or we may pass on any pro-rata increases in costs at our discretion. If a tour is cancelled, monies already paid by you will be refunded or credited towards future travel at your election. We will not be responsible for any other travel arrangements affected by, or any additional costs incurred as a result of our cancellation.

AMENDMENTS BY US

Every effort will be made to adhere to the published touring itinerary. Occasionally, circumstances beyond our and our suppliers' control will force changes, amendments or modifications to the itinerary and its inclusions. If circumstances beyond our control such as road conditions, poor weather, changes in transport schedules and/or vehicle breakdowns mean that we need to amend your itinerary or the services with it, we shall notify you in writing as soon as possible. If the change arises during your trip, our representatives will make every effort to contact you personally. We reserve the right to substitute alternative transport or accommodation in the interests of the safety of our passengers and/or the successful completion of the itinerary. You agree that we have the right to pass on any costs we incur for alternative arrangements we put in place for your benefit in these circumstances. To the fullest extent permitted by law, TaC will not be responsible for any omissions or modifications to the itinerary or the inclusions made as a consequence of these circumstances. If you are entitled to any compensation at law for any changes or modifications in these circumstances, then you agree that any compensation you are entitled to will be reduced by the value of any alternative services we provide to you which you accept. TaC disclaims any liability to you for the costs of airfares, visas or any other expenses incurred by you.

UNUSED & DENIED SERVICES

No refunds will be made for any travel arrangements not utilised, whether by choice or because of late arrival or early departure. This includes the failure of transport to operate according to schedule, which we disclaim responsibility for. If you are not fully and validly vaccinated against Covid-19 in the destination(s) where services are to be provided, and particular suppliers refuse to provide you with travel arrangements, then you agree you will not be entitled to any refund for those arrangements. We will not be responsible to you for any loss or expenses you incur (including loss of enjoyment or the costs of alternative arrangements) if you are denied services in these circumstances.

ACCOMMODATION

We reserve the right to substitute hotels, vessels and other forms of accommodation with properties or vessels of a comparable or higher standard.

PASSPORTS & VISAS

It is a requirement that you hold a valid passport and visas for your journey. It is your sole responsibility to ensure that you are in possession of the necessary documentation to comply with the laws and regulations of the countries to be visited.

CLIENT NAMES EXACTLY AS PER PASSPORT

For security reasons, airlines and our overseas suppliers require names to be given exactly as stated in your passport. If you do not advise the correct information and we have to re-issue airline tickets or other documentation, then you will be responsible for any fees charged (such as airline cancellation charges or re-issue fees) in addition to our own reasonable administration fees.

VACCINATIONS

It is your sole responsibility to obtain vaccinations and preventative medicines as may be required for the duration of the tour. Any information provided by us is given in good faith.

Covid-19

Two's a Crowd does not require proof of vaccination against COVID-19 in order to travel with us. However, we do encourage our clients to be vaccinated in order to protect themselves and others. Specific proof of vaccination (for COVID-19 and other diseases) or testing may be required by an airline, cruise line or destination. Please ensure you check relevant requirements carefully.

General

You acknowledge and agree that failure to satisfy testing or vaccination requirements imposed by a destination or carrier/cruise line will be deemed a cancellation by yourself. Please refer to the "Cancellation by You" section above.

EXCLUSION FROM TOUR

When joining a group tour, you undertake to conduct yourself in a manner conducive to good group dynamics. If you act in a manner that threatens or disrupts the safety or enjoyment of others on the tour, the tour host or tour guide acting reasonably may require that you leave the tour. TaC will not be responsible for any other travel arrangements affected by, or any additional costs incurred as a result of your booking being cancelled or you being asked to leave the tour as described above, including costs of airfares, visas or any other expenses incurred by you as a result of your cancellation.

HEALTH & FITNESS

It is your responsibility to ensure that you have a suitable level of health and fitness to undertake the trip of your choice. If you suffer from a medical condition which may reasonably be expected to increase your risk of needing medical attention, or which may affect the normal conduct of the trip, then you must advise us at the time you make your booking request.

We may request you to provide an assessment of your medical condition from a qualified medical practitioner. If the assessment indicates that you will require special assistance from personnel which we cannot reasonably provide, then we may cancel your booking. Provided you notified us of your medical condition at the time you made your booking request, we will provide you with a full refund of payments made. If you fail to notify us at that time or if you fail to provide a medical assessment within a reasonable time of our request, then this will be considered a cancellation by you. We reserve the right to cancel your booking if any changed or non-disclosed medical conditions mean that you will require special assistance which we cannot reasonably provide. We strongly suggest that your travel insurance policy includes comprehensive cancellation coverage.

DIETARY REQUIREMENTS

Special dietary requests are required to be notified to us at the time of booking. Although we will use reasonable endeavours to accommodate requests, we cannot guarantee requests will be met by suppliers. It is your responsibility to check that meals and beverages do not contain any allergens. We expressly disclaim any liability for meals or beverages that contain allergens.

TRAVEL INSURANCE

For international tours, it is a condition of travel that each passenger is adequately covered by an appropriate comprehensive travel insurance policy to cover cancellation, medical requirements, luggage, repatriations, medical evacuation and additional expenses. For domestic travel (ie within Australia), travel insurance is strongly recommended. Please also check the contingencies of your prospective insurance cover and ensure you are aware of its conditions and omissions. We strongly advise travel insurance is purchased at time of booking to provide full cover. You must provide us with the insurance company name, policy number and emergency contact number relating to such a policy within 14 days of final payment being made.

the problem is not solved to your satisfaction you must forward your complaint in writing to TaC no later than 30 days after completion of the tour, otherwise you waive the right to make a claim against us in connection with the problem.
