MADAGASCAR- THE EIGHTH CONTINENT

There is nowhere else on Earth quite like Madagascar. Often referred to as the 'Eighth Continent', this remarkable island has evolved in isolation for over 80 million years, creating a landscape and wildlife found nowhere else on the planet. From the haunting silhouettes of ancient baobabs to the echoing call of the Indri lemur deep within the rainforest, this is a destination of rare and unforgettable character.

Your adventure begins in the vibrant capital, Antananarivo, before flying to the coastal paradise of Ifaty. Here, you'll enjoy a magical breakfast beneath majestic baobabs and explore the surreal beauty of the Spiny Forest, where 'teapot' trees tower over a fragile, prehistoric ecosystem. After soaking up the seaside charm of Ifaty's sandy streets, you'll head inland to trek the dramatic sandstone canyons of Isalo National Park. As we wind through the highlands, you'll encounter ring-tailed lemurs at the Anja Community Reserve and immerse yourself in the misty cloud forests of Ranomafana. Along the way, visits to local communities and social enterprises offer genuine insight into daily life and the warmth of Malagasy culture. Designed specifically for the solo spirit, you will be supported by an experienced driver, an expert local guide, and a dedicated Two's a Crowd tour host. With a maximum of just 11 travellers, the group remains intimate- perfect for forging genuine connections while keeping the spirit of discovery alive.

This is Madagascar at its most authentic, all with the comfort and privacy of your own room every night.

Today, you'll say goodbye to Isalo National Park and hit the road for Fianarantsoa – a colourful town known for its heritage site. Along the way, you'll stop at the Anja Community Reserve. The forest in Anja was designated a protected area by the Government of Madagascar in 1999. The reserve extends over 30 hectares and is enriched with all kinds of flora and fauna, most notable for its dense population of semi-tame ring-tailed lemurs. Anja has become a vital example of how community management of natural resources can effectively protect the area and benefit the community. Based on their individual skill sets, some locals work as guides and spotters or they perform administrative tasks for the reserve. The villagers will be your guides as you explore the reserve this afternoon. This afternoon visit Ecole Hoteliere La Riziere at the foot of Fianarantsoa's Old Town. This hotel sits above the town on a hill, providing views of the community and the rice fields below. It also doubles as a school, providing basic hospitality training to young people in the community, 65% of whom are female. Their education includes learning the challenges of sustainable development and the income from the establishment finances this training, making it possible to reduce the tuition fees for disadvantaged students. Enjoy dinner here together before returning to your hotel for the evening.

Wander past tiled roofs and over-studded balconies, then visit a typical Malagasy village for an insight into how most of the island's population live. Explore the surrounding countryside, dotted with rice paddies and vineyards that produce Fianarantsoa's famous wine. You'll get a chance to sample the local cuisine with a lunch stop in the village. In the afternoon, travel to Ranomafana National Park. This area is a haven for small mammals, birds, reptiles and insects, as well as palms, bamboo, orchids and carnivorous plants. This park is also home to 13 species of lemur, including the famous golden bamboo lemur, which was first reported in the area in 1985. Its presence is one of the main reasons why the government decided to protect this forest. Wright, the centre works to protect Madagascar's unique and biologically diverse ecosystems through conservation projects that directly benefit local communities. You'll get a chance to tour the centre with a researcher and sit down for an informal session to learn about the work they do. Today, you'll make the journey to Ambositra – home to the third-largest ethnic group in Madagascar, the Betsileo people. Ambositra is known as the arts, crafts and wood carving capital of Madagascar. You'll stop by the Id'om Art workshop and learn more about marquetry – the practise of cutting and assembling small pieces of coloured wood, using a hand-operated jigsaw. The jigsaw is created from old car tyres' wire and it can take up to 2 months to make a 1-m-wide artwork. In the years that follow, families return to the tomb in a ceremony to replace the shroud, honouring their ancestors in a deeply symbolic ritual. The association supports more than 40 women from surrounding villages, offering a holistic model of community development centred around traditional silk weaving. As you learn about this inspiring initiative, you'll gain a deeper appreciation for both the craftsmanship and cultural significance behind each piece. By submitting your Booking Form, you confirm that you have read, understood, and agree to be bound by these terms and conditions and the specific details set out in the Booking Form, including the payment schedule and any applicable cancellation terms. To the extent of any inconsistency between these terms and the Booking Form, the Booking Form will prevail. It is at this point that a contract between TaC and you comes into existence subject to these Booking Conditions and the specific details set out in the Booking Form. We reserve the right to decline any booking at our discretion. No employee of TaC other than a director has the authority to vary or omit any of these Booking Conditions or to promise any discount, refund or credit. By making a booking, you consent to us assigning or novating your booking in the circumstances described under the "Transfer of Bookings" section, provided the new owner or operator assumes responsibility for your travel arrangements.

SERVICES

The services we provide to you are limited to (a) the arrangement and coordination of your travel arrangements; and (b) the delivery of travel arrangements which we directly control. This includes (often significant) work undertaken prior to travel to arrange and coordinate the delivery of your travel arrangements.

PRICING

Prices shown in our brochures are in Australian Dollars ($AUD) and were accurate based on prices and exchange rates at the time of printing or publication. We reserve the right to adjust published prices due to currency fluctuations, government charges or increased costs of services at any time. Please enquire with us or check our website prior to making a booking request for the current prices. Please be aware that tour pricing may be based on a number of foreign currencies and the total cost of your trip can only be guaranteed upon final payment. Up until that time TaC reserves the right to amend your tour pricing in accordance with negative currency fluctuations and the imposition of new or amended government charges.

NOT INCLUDED IN THE TOUR PRICE

Unless otherwise stated, international and domestic airfares, visas, airport taxes, port taxes, city taxes, security charges, airport/hotel transfers, gratuities, items of a personal nature, travel insurance, vaccinations, emergency evacuation costs, laundry, meals (other than those stipulated), additional beverages and consumables are not included in the tour price.

PRICE SURCHARGES

We reserve the right to surcharge the cost of your booked travel arrangements prior to commencement for circumstances beyond our control such as currency devaluation, fuel or air fare surcharges, or the imposition of new or amended Government charges. We will not surcharge for currency fluctuations once full payment has been received by us.

DEPOSIT AND PAYMENT TERMS

A non-refundable and non-transferable booking deposit as specified in our Booking Form is required to confirm your booking. The deposit represents a fee payable to us for services associated with the processing and confirmation of your booking and any consultations on travel arrangements that we may provide to you. Because these services are provided as soon as we confirm your booking, the deposit is non-refundable other than where we cancel your travel arrangements for reasons other than Force Majeure (see below). We are not obliged to hold or confirm any services for you until we receive your deposit. If you fail to pay the deposit, then we reserve the right to cancel your booking without notice. If the price of any services increases before we receive your deposit, we reserve the right to pass on this price increase to you. This is in addition to our right to increase prices prior to full payment as stated above.

FINAL PAYMENT

The outstanding balance is payable by the date specified in the Booking Form for that tour. Certain tours may also require additional instalment payments. Payment schedules, including any instalments and the final payment date, will be specified in your Booking Form. You acknowledge and agree that TaC may apply payments received from you, including the deposit and any instalments, toward supplier commitments, administrative costs and other costs incurred in connection with your booking. To the extent any such costs are unrecoverable by TaC, TaC may retain the relevant amount from payments received. Late payment may cause cancellation of all or part of your trip, with no refund payable. We are under no obligation to remind you when payment is due. For late bookings, full payment is required at the time of request, and if we are unable to confirm services, we will provide you with a refund.

PAYMENT METHODS

Payments can be made by direct deposit or credit card. Unfortunately, we are unable to accept cheques or cash. Account details for direct deposit are as follows:

BENDIGO BANK

ACCOUNT NAME: Travel Passion Pty Ltd

CANCELLATIONS BY YOU

If you wish to cancel your trip, you must give written notice. Refunds will be made less applicable cancellation fees, calculated from the date we receive your written notice, as follows:

- If cancellation is received before the final payment due date stated in your Booking Form: non-refundable deposit plus any unrecoverable costs actually incurred by TaC in connection with your booking, including supplier payments, reasonable administrative costs and other reasonable commitments made in reliance on your booking.
- If cancellation is received on or after the final payment due date stated in your Booking Form, or if you do not show: 100% of the total booking price payable, reflecting the fact that TaC will have committed the full cost of your travel arrangements at that time.

For the avoidance of doubt, where instalment payments have been made before the final payment due date stated in your Booking Form, TaC may retain, in addition to the non-refundable deposit, only so much of those payments as is necessary to cover unrecoverable costs actually incurred by TaC. You agree that the deductions and cancellation charges specified above are reasonable, represent a genuine pre-estimate of loss, and are necessary to protect TaC's legitimate business interests. Please note that payment schedules and cancellation conditions vary from tour to tour. The specific terms applicable to your booking will be set out in your Booking Form. By proceeding with your booking, you acknowledge and agree to those terms. If you have booked and then cancel any services additional to the packaged tour arrangements, for example pre/post accommodation, airfares, transfers or travel insurance, the supplier of those services may impose cancellation fees in accordance with their own terms and conditions, which you will be responsible for. TaC may also charge cancellation fees for those services in accordance with our Agency Booking Conditions. For group departures, a transfer of a confirmed booking to another departure date at your request is deemed to be cancellation of the original booking.

ILLNESS OR VACCINATION STATUS PREVENTING TRAVEL

If, due to any illness, suspected illness or failure to satisfy any required tests (such as a PCR or rapid antigen test in relation to Covid19) or vaccination or other health requirements:

- an airline or other common carrier refuses you carriage;
- a hotel, vessel or other service provider refuses to accommodate or carry you; or

We will not be liable to refund the cost of your trip (or any part of it), except to the extent we are able to recover any amounts from suppliers or are otherwise required to do so under the Australian Consumer Law. This is because we will have already paid (or committed to pay) suppliers and will have already performed significant work preparing for the delivery of your trip and servicing your booking. We will not be responsible for any other loss or expense you incur in connection with your booking (for example, airfares and visa expenses) if you are prevented from commencing or continuing your trip in these circumstances.

- reschedule your travel arrangements (in whole or in part) and/or
- cancel your travel arrangements (in whole or in part), in which case our contract with you will terminate (in whole or in part)

If we cancel your travel arrangements and our contract terminates, neither of us will have any claim for damages against the other for the cancelled arrangements. However, we will refund payments attributable to the cancelled travel arrangements less (a) unrecoverable third party costs and other expenses incurred by us for the cancelled travel arrangements; (b) overhead charges incurred by us relative to the price of the cancelled travel arrangements; and (c) fair compensation for work undertaken by us in relation to the cancelled travel arrangements until the time of cancellation and in connection with the processing of any refund.

FORCE MAJEURE – DURING TRAVEL

FORCE MAJEURE – GENERAL

If we provide you with any alternative services or assistance where travel arrangements are cancelled or rescheduled due to Force Majeure, then you agree the amount to be refunded to you will be reduced by the value of these services and assistance. If we cancel your trip for reasons beyond Force Majeure, you will be offered (at your election a full refund of all funds paid over to us, or the offer of a trip of substantially equal quality if appropriate. You acknowledge that the terms in this section are reasonably necessary to protect our legitimate business interests.

MINIMUM NUMBERS

Some tours are based on a minimum number of passengers travelling. We will advise you prior to confirming your booking if this is the case. If a tour fails to attract the minimum passenger numbers, the tour may be cancelled, or we may pass on any pro-rata increases in costs at our discretion. If a tour is cancelled, monies already paid by you will be refunded or credited towards future travel at your election. We will not be responsible for any other travel arrangements affected by, or any additional costs incurred as a result of our cancellation.

AMENDMENTS BY YOU

We will endeavour to accommodate amendments and additional requests. You acknowledge that these may not be possible to fulfil. An amendment fee of AU$50 will be levied to cover communication and administration costs for any changes to bookings. You will also be required to pay any additional costs charged by suppliers.

AMENDMENTS BY US

Every effort will be made to adhere to the published touring itinerary. Occasionally, circumstances beyond our and our suppliers' control will force changes, amendments or modifications to the itinerary and its inclusions. If circumstances beyond our control such as road conditions, poor weather, changes in transport schedules and/or vehicle breakdowns mean that we need to amend your itinerary or the services with it, we shall notify you in writing as soon as possible. If the change arises during your trip, our representatives will make every effort to contact you personally. We reserve the right to substitute alternative transport or accommodation in the interests of the safety of our passengers and/or the successful completion of the itinerary. You agree that we have the right to pass on any costs we incur for alternative arrangements we put in place for your benefit in these circumstances. To the fullest extent permitted by law, TaC will not be responsible for any omissions or modifications to the itinerary or the inclusions made as a consequence of these circumstances. If you are entitled to any compensation at law for any changes or modifications in these circumstances, then you agree that any compensation you are entitled to will be reduced by the value of any alternative services we provide to you which you accept. This includes the failure of transport to operate according to schedule, which we disclaim responsibility for. If you are not fully and validly vaccinated against Covid-19 in the destination(s) where services are to be provided, and particular suppliers refuse to provide you with travel arrangements, then you agree you will not be entitled to any refund for those arrangements. We will not be responsible to you for any loss or expenses you incur (including loss of enjoyment or the costs of alternative arrangements) if you are denied services in these circumstances.

ACCOMMODATION

We reserve the right to substitute hotels, vessels and other forms of accommodation with properties or vessels of a comparable or higher standard.

PASSPORTS & VISAS

It is a requirement that you hold a valid passport, any required visas and any other mandatory travel authorisations for your journey (for example, electronic travel authorisations such as ESTA or ETA, where applicable). Your passport and any travel authorisations must meet all entry and exit requirements of the countries you are visiting, including any rules that apply if you hold dual nationality. It is your sole responsibility to ensure that you are in possession of all documentation necessary to comply with the laws and regulations of the countries to be visited, and to check the current requirements with the relevant embassy, consulate or official government website before you travel.

CLIENT NAMES EXACTLY AS PER PASSPORT

For security reasons, airlines and our overseas suppliers require names to be given exactly as stated in your passport. If you do not advise the correct information and we have to re-issue airline tickets or other documentation, then you will be responsible for any fees charged (such as airline cancellation charges or re-issue fees) in addition to our own reasonable administration fees.

VACCINATIONS

It is your sole responsibility to obtain vaccinations and preventative medicines as may be required for the duration of the tour. Any information provided by us is given in good faith.

COVID-19

TaC does not require proof of vaccination against COVID-19 in order to travel with us. However, we encourage our clients to be vaccinated in order to protect themselves and others. Specific proof of vaccination (for COVID-19 or other diseases), testing, health declarations or other Covid-related measures may still be required by an airline, cruise line, accommodation provider or destination country. It is your responsibility to check the relevant requirements carefully before you travel and to ensure you comply with all airline, cruise line and government health and entry rules that apply to your journey. If you are unable to commence or continue your trip because you do not meet any applicable health, vaccination, testing or Covid-related requirements, this will be treated as a cancellation by you – please refer to the "Cancellations by You" and "Illness or Vaccination Status Preventing Travel" sections above.

GENERAL

You acknowledge and agree that failure to satisfy testing or vaccination requirements imposed by a destination or carrier/cruise line will be deemed a cancellation by yourself. Please refer to the "Cancellation by You" section above.

EXCLUSION FROM TOUR

When joining a group tour, you undertake to conduct yourself in a manner conducive to good group dynamics. If you act in a manner that threatens or disrupts the safety or enjoyment of others on the tour, the tour host or tour guide acting reasonably may require that you leave the tour. TaC will not be responsible for any other travel arrangements affected by, or any additional costs incurred as a result of your booking being cancelled or you being asked to leave the tour as described above, including costs of airfares, visas or any other expenses incurred by you as a result of our cancellation.

HEALTH & FITNESS

It is your responsibility to ensure that you have a suitable level of health and fitness to undertake the trip of your choice. If you suffer from a medical condition which may reasonably be expected to increase your risk of needing medical attention, or which may affect the normal conduct of the trip, then you must advise us at the time you make your booking request. We may request you to provide an assessment of your medical condition from a qualified medical practitioner. If the assessment indicates that you will require special assistance from personnel which we cannot reasonably provide, then we may cancel your booking. Provided you notified us of your medical condition at the time you made your booking request, we will provide you with a full refund of payments made. If you fail to notify us at that time or if you fail to provide a medical assessment within a reasonable time of our request, then this will be considered a cancellation by you. We reserve the right to cancel your booking if any changed or non-disclosed medical conditions mean that you will require special assistance which we cannot reasonably provide. We strongly suggest that your travel insurance policy includes comprehensive cancellation coverage.

DIETARY REQUIREMENTS

Special dietary requests are required to be notified to us at the time of booking. Although we will use reasonable endeavours to accommodate requests, we cannot guarantee requests will be met by suppliers. It is your responsibility to check that meals and beverages do not contain any allergens. We expressly disclaim any liability for meals or beverages that contain allergens.

TRAVEL INSURANCE

For international tours, it is a condition of travel that each passenger is adequately covered by an appropriate comprehensive travel insurance policy to cover cancellation, medical requirements, luggage, repatriations, medical evacuation and additional expenses. For domestic travel (ie within Australia), travel insurance is strongly recommended. Please also check the contingencies of your prospective insurance cover and ensure you are aware of its conditions and omissions. We strongly advise travel insurance is purchased at time of booking to provide full cover. You must provide us with the insurance company name, policy number and emergency contact number relating to such a policy within 14 days of final payment being made.

COMPLAINTS

If you have a complaint about any aspect of the travel arrangements, you must immediately bring it to the attention of TaC or our local representative at the time to give us the opportunity to put things right. If you fail to do this, you agree that you waive the right to make a future claim against us in connection with the problem. If you notify us or our local representative of the problem and the problem is not solved to your satisfaction you must forward your complaint in writing to TaC no later than 30 days after completion of the tour, otherwise you waive the right to make a claim against us in connection with the problem.

INDEPENDENT SERVICES

TaC is not responsible for any additional activities or excursions which are not included in the booked itinerary or which we sell as agent for the principal operator. Any advice or recommendation made by a guide or local representative does not make us responsible.

ACCEPTANCE OF RISK

You acknowledge that travel involves personal risks which may be greater than those present in your everyday life. This could be as a result of the adventurous nature of your trip or the visiting of destinations which present geographical, political or cultural risks and dangers. You should consult guidance issued by the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT) applicable to the destinations within your itinerary. You acknowledge that your choice to travel is made having had the benefit of DFAT guidance, and you accept any additional personal risks associated with your travel. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we disclaim any liability for these risks.

RESPONSIBILITY

Services Supplied By Independent Suppliers:

Where a third party over whom we have no direct control (Independent Suppliers) is the supplier of travel arrangements that form part of your tour, you acknowledge that our obligations to you are limited to arranging for the Independent Supplier to provide those travel arrangements to you. Independent Suppliers over whom we have no direct control include airlines, railway and cruise operators, hoteliers and common carriers. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we will not be responsible to you for any loss, damage, personal injury or delay attributable to the actions or omissions of an Independent Supplier. Any claims you have in this regard must be made against the Independent Supplier. You acknowledge that the Independent Supplier's liability to you may be limited by their own terms and conditions.

Services we directly supply:

To the extent only that we are the principal supplier of travel arrangements or other services to you which we control, then we will provide those travel arrangements and services with reasonable skill and care. We will only be responsible for our employees in the course of their employment, and for our agents and suppliers (where we are not the supplier's agent or where the supplier is not an Independent Supplier) if they were carrying out the work we had asked them to do. We will not be responsible for any loss, damage, claim or expense caused by the acts or omissions of yourself, of any other third party not connected with the provision of the travel arrangements or services, or due to an event of Force Majeure.

GENERAL LIABILITY LIMITATION

You acknowledge that travel arrangements or services which comply with local laws and regulations will be deemed to have been properly performed, even if this would not be considered the case in Australia. Australian Consumer Law and corresponding legislation in other jurisdictions in certain circumstances imply mandatory conditions and warranties into consumer contracts ("Consumer Warranties"). These Booking Conditions do not exclude or limit the application of the Consumer Warranties. Other than the Consumer Warranties, TaC disclaims all warranties. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the maximum liability of TaC to you under these Booking Conditions, in tort (including negligence) or at law is limited to arranging for the travel arrangements to be resupplied or payment of the cost of having them resupplied.

DEEMED ACCEPTANCE

By making a booking request, you are deemed to have agreed and consented to all terms in these Booking Conditions and in any other documents provided to you by TaC or any other person who may have booked the tour on your behalf. If you book on behalf of another party, you represent and warrant to TaC that you are duly authorised to provide the agreement and consent the other party and you agree that you will be responsible for any loss or damage TaC incurs if this is not the case.

IMAGE RELEASE

When on tour, we may from time to time take photographs or make recordings of you and tour activities that may identify you. We reserve the right to use any photographs and/or recordings for promotional reasons. In using such images, you consent to the use of such images or recordings by us and you acknowledge that you will not be entitled to payment or other compensation for the giving of this consent. If you do not consent to the release and use of your image, then please advise TaC in writing within 30 days following payment of your deposit.

TRANSFER OF BOOKINGS

If our business or part of it is sold or transferred, we may assign or novate your booking to the new owner or another tour operator who agrees to honour your travel arrangements on substantially the same terms. If this happens, we will notify you and provide the new operator's details, and from that time your contract will be with the new operator, subject to the Australian Consumer Law.

GENERAL

The contract between you and Travel Passion Pty Ltd trading as Two's a Crowd is deemed to have been made in the State of Victoria, Australia, and shall be governed by the laws of Victoria. Any disputes shall be dealt with by a court with the appropriate jurisdiction in Victoria. If any provision of these Booking Conditions is found to be unenforceable, then to the extent possible it will be severed from these conditions without affecting the remaining provisions. Any personal information you provide to us will be collected, stored, used, protected and shared in accordance with Australian Privacy Principles, and our Privacy Policy, which is published here <https://twosacrowd.com.au/privacy-policy/>
